Part1: About Our Centre

The Confucius Institute (CI) at Seneca College was founded on 24 Nov. 2011, in co-operation with our Chinese education partner-- Northeast Normal University. We applied to Hanban (Chinese National Office for Teaching Chinese as a Foreign Language) to become a Chinese Test Centre at the same time as the founding of the Seneca CI. , The application was approved in February of this year; therefore, we have become the first internet-based Chinese test centre in the Greater Toronto Area. We plan to hold the new HSK (Hanyu Shuiping Kaoshi - Chinese Proficiency Test) this year./ Starting in 2013 we will hold the new HSK, YCT (Youth Chinese Test)

Part2: About Our Internet-based Chinese Test

The Internet-based Test was approved by Hanban to support all levels of HSK/YRT. It is a convenient system for testing the outcomes of learning for all types of students.

All procedures for the internet-based test are completely online, allowing students to take as much time as they wish.It is safe and provides accurate information. This effective assessment allows teachers to adjust their teaching methods based on student's performance in test.

In addition, it also provides a free online practice test. All students can login onto the IBT website to become familiar with the procedure before the examination.

Part3: About the New HSK Test

1. General Information

The new HSK test was launched by Hanban (Chinese National Office for Teaching Chinese as a Foreign Language) in an effort to better serve Chinese language learners. The test is the result of coordinated efforts by experts from different disciplines including Chinese language teaching, linguistics, psychology and educational measurement. The new exam combines the advantages of the original HSK while taking into consideration recent trends in Chinese language training, by conducting surveys and making use of the latest findings in international language testing.

2. Test Structure

The new HSK is an international standardized exam that tests and rates Chinese language proficiency. It assesses non-native Chinese speakers' abilities in using the Chinese language in their daily, academic and professional lives. The new HSK consists of a writing test and a speaking test, which are independent of each other. There are six levels of writing tests, namely the HSK (level I), HSK (level II), HSK (level III), HSK (level IV), HSK (level V), and HSK (level VI). There are three levels of speaking tests, namely the HSK (beginner level), HSK (intermediate level), and HSK (advanced level). During the speaking test, test takers' speech will be recorded.

Part 10: FAQs

1. The test I want to attend is closed for registration. Do I have any other options?

Our test deadline for HSK registration is 10 days before the test date. If the test you want to attend is closed for registration, we suggest you register for another test at a later date.

2. How can I enquire about my test results?

Enter your Test Admission Ticket No. and your name at the appropriate position in “Results Enquiry” to make an enquiry. You may also use the “Enquiry via the Test Taker’s 5-digit Sequence Number” function on the enquiry page and select or enter relevant information on the website: <http://www.chinesetesting.cn/goquery.do>.

3. What should I do when the message “Entered information does not match” appears during my results enquiry?

“Entered information does not match” might appear during your results enquiry due to the following reasons:

1) The test results have not yet been released. Usually, results are released about a month after the test date. To confirm if your test results have been released, you may check the results release status via the “View Progress in Release of the Exam Results” function on the page.

2) The Test Admission Ticket No. you have entered is incorrect. A standard Test Admission Ticket No. is an 18-digit (including the initial letter) number beginning with “H”, “Y” or “B”. Please check whether the Test Admission Ticket No. you have entered is correct. Test takers using a non-standard Test Admission Ticket No. may enquire about their test results by using the “Enquiry via the Test Taker’s 5-digit Sequence Number” function or the “Enquiry with Test Admission Ticket No. Forgotten” function.

3) The name you have entered is inconsistent with that on your Test Admission Ticket. Please pay close attention that the spelling of your name and the order of and spaces between your surname and first name, etc. They should be consistent with the information on your Test Admission Ticket; otherwise it will be regarded as “Entered information does not match” by the system.

If you still can't enquire about your test results for reasons other than those mentioned above, you may contact us, and provide us with your test date, test category and level, Test Admission Ticket No. as well as your name. Our staff will look into your case and assist you as soon as possible.

4. What should I do if I've lost my Test Admission Ticket and forgotten its No.?

If you lose your Test Admission Ticket before the test, you may log on to the website's “Personal Centre” and reprint a Test Admission Ticket, or contact the administrator in charge of the test centre and let him/her help you reprint a Test Admission Ticket.

If you lose your Test Admission Ticket after the test, and can't enquire about your test result, you may ask the administrator in charge of the test centre for your Test Admission Ticket No. or enquire about your test result via the “Enquiry with Test Admission Ticket No. Forgotten” function on the website.

5. Can I apply for a reissue if I lose my test results report?

Currently, HSK doesn't offer test results report reissue service, and we suggest you retake the test.

6. When can I receive my test results report (score report and certificate)? And how do I pick it up?

Under normal circumstances, you may contact our Test Centre where you took the test five weeks after the test and receive your test results report.

7. How do I pay the test fees after I've registered for the test online?

You may contact us and make the payment.

8. I have registered for the test and paid the test fees. Can I cancel my registration?

Please contact us as soon as possible to cancel your registration. Related regulations on registration cancellation are as follows: if you cancel your registration before the registration deadline (21 days before the test date), you may receive a full refund; if you cancel your registration after the deadline of registration but still 10 days before the test date, you may receive a partial refund (50% of the test fees); no applications for cancellation will be processed within 10 days before the test date, and no refunds will be given at that time.

9. If I fall ill and can't attend the test, can I take the test another time?

Such a case would be treated as a cancellation of registration and you would need to register again at the next test date.

10. What certificates are required when I register for the test?

If you come to the test centre for on-site registration, you are required to bring a valid ID card and 2 photos (e-photo or two paper photos). If you register through the website, please fill in the information required according to the instructions on the website.

11. Where can I find HSK sample test papers or sample questions?

You may purchase a sample test outline, peruse the test introduction on our website or download HSK sample test papers from the "Resource Centre" of our website (link to the resource centre at <http://www.chinesetesting.cn/godownload.do>).

12. The six universities I've applied for all require original test results reports. Can you offer me several originals?

Currently, HSK doesn't offer extra test results report service; it only offers each test taker one free test results report (score report and certificate).

13. Can I get my test results report without my Test Admission Ticket?

Yes. You should come to our test centre with the ID card you used to register and obtain your test results report after the teacher in charge verifies your identity.

14. How can I print my test results report after I've seen my score online?

HSK doesn't allow for online printing of test results reports. After the test results are released, our test centres will receive the reports from the test centre of Confucius Institute Headquarter (Hanban). You can contact us to obtain your test results reports.

15. I've taken the HSK and received my test results report. Why haven't I received the certificate?

HSK 1-6 only offers the test takers their test results reports indicating their score and qualification status; no certificate will be issued.

16. It's been a year since I took the HSK, but I haven't received my test results report. Can I get it now?

The validity period of test results report for the HSK 1-6 is two years (calculated from the test date). The reports will be kept at the test centre within the validity period (two years). Your test results report will be kept at the test centre for that time, so you can contact the test centre and obtain your report.

17. I've taken the HSK 2 and scored 80 on listening and 70 on reading. What is my Chinese level?

Your total score (listening + reading) is 150, higher than 120 – the minimum score for the HSK 2. Hence you've passed the HSK 2, and your Chinese is at an HSK 2 level.

For the HSK 1 and HSK 2, a total score of 120 is considered a passing score; for the HSK 3-6, a total score of 180 is considered a passing score.

18. If I changed my address after the test, can I still receive my test results report?

According to HSK rules and regulations, you should contact our Test Centre to receive your test results reports, and address changes won't have an influence on your obtaining the test results report.

If you have applied for test results report mailing service, you should contact the administrator in charge of the test centre as soon as possible to change the mailing address. If our Test Centre has already sent the test results report out, you will have to retrieve your test results report at the original address.

19. Can I leave the test room midway?

In general, you should not leave the test room midway. For special reasons that you have to leave the test room midway, you should ask for permission from the examiner in charge of the exam. Before leaving the test room, you should submit your test admission ticket to the examiner, and show the ID certificate when you return to the test room.
