Total Cost Estimates:

Tuition Fees	$3,746.38
Books and Supplies	$1,500.00

NOTE

Book and Supply Costs are approximate and do not include transportation, field trip or work integrated learning fees. Fees are subject to change.

As a Better Jobs Ontario applicant, you are expected to make a $500.00 non-refundable deposit towards your tuition by the due date that appears on your online Student Center. You must pay the remainder of your tuition fees in full by the first day of classes or a $150.00 late fee will be added to your fees. If your $500.00 deposit is not received, you will lose your seat in the program.

Notification of withdrawal must be directed to the Registrar's Office in writing (by regular mail or in person) in order to be eligible for appropriate fees refund where applicable. Withdrawal from Seneca before the tenth day of scheduled classes will result in a refund of full tuition fees paid, less $500.00. If withdrawal occurs after the tenth day of scheduled classes, no tuition fees from that term will be refunded. Fees collected for future terms will be refunded.

Employment Opportunities:

This distinct, nine-month articulated program is for you, if you are a graduate of the Law and Society Program of York University or of a Justice Studies degree or equivalent from an Ontario university. When you graduate from this program, these are the types of career options you can explore: Court of Appeal for Ontario, Ontario Court of Justice, Superior Court of Justice, Federal Court of Canada, Immigration and Refugee Board.

For further information, please contact our Student Recruitment Department at Student.Recruitment@senecapolytechnic.ca.

Field Placement: Meet all the academic requirements and you will have the opportunity to participate in a four-week unpaid field placement at the end of your second semester. This opportunity will provide you with practical work experience and exposure to the justice administration sector. With the support and assistance of the faculty and staff, you will play an active role in securing your placement.

To be placed in a court or other government setting, you will have to provide a police clearance certificate. You must have permanent resident status or Canadian citizenship to be eligible for a field placement with a government court, tribunal, department or agency.

If you are approved for Better Jobs Ontario Funding, you will be required to submit a signed copy of your contract to the Admissions Office.
