

DAVID AGNEW

BIOGRAPHY

David Agnew became the President of Seneca College on July 1, 2009.

Mr. Agnew brings extensive experience in the private, public and non-profit sectors to Seneca. Most recently he served as the Ombudsman of Banking Services and Investments. Previously, Mr. Agnew was the President and CEO of UNICEF Canada, a Principal at the strategy consulting firm Digital 4Sight and Executive Vice-President and Corporate Secretary for the Credit Union Central of Ontario.

Mr. Agnew was also the head of the public service as the Secretary of Cabinet in the Government of Ontario from 1992 to 1995, led the Public-Private Partnerships Project and was Chief of Staff to the Premier of Ontario for two years.

He was seconded to the University of Toronto from 1995 to 1996, was a Senior Resident at Massey College and is a graduate of Memorial University of Newfoundland. Mr. Agnew's experience extends to the field of journalism, having worked as a newspaper reporter in St. John's, Ottawa, Toronto and Edmonton.

Raised in Toronto, he is active in community affairs and volunteers as a Director of the Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre.

David Agnew, President of Seneca College